THE COMPUTER CONSERVATION SOCIETY

MANCHESTER COMPUTERS 1946-1981

A Seminar to be held in the main Lecture Theatre at the Science Museum, Exhibition Road, London SW7 2DD on Thursday 23rd May 1991

Chairman: Professor Simon Lavington

Programme

11.00	Professor Tom Kilburn FRS	"The Prototype & Mark I, 1946-51"
11.20	Professor Tom Kilburn FRS	"Why Build Another Computer?"
11.30	Professor Dai Edwards	"Meg/Mercury hardware and architecture"
12.00	Professor Dick Grimsdale	"The Transistor Computer"
12.30-1.30	Lunch break
1.30	Professor Tom Kilburn	"Introduction to the Atlas Project"
1.45	Professor Dai Edwards	"Atlas hardware and architecture"
2.15	Professor Frank Sumner	"One-level store and virtual memory"
2.45	Professor David Howarth	"The Atlas Supervisor"
3.15-3.30	Tea break
3.30	Professor Tony Brooker	"Software for the Mark I and Mercury"
4.00	Professor Derrick Morris	"Architecture for MU5 and MU6"
4.30	Mr Peter Hall	"Manchester University/Industry Collaboration"
5.00-5.30	General Discussion

Tickets by application to the Secretary, Tony Sale, The Science Museum, Exhibition Road, London SW7 2DD Tel: 071 938 8196